

This is a detailed architectural floor plan of a large, multi-story building, likely a school or institutional structure. The plan shows a central corridor system connecting various rooms, including classrooms, offices, and a large hall. The layout is symmetrical, with rooms arranged on either side of the central axis. The drawing is a black and white line drawing, typical of architectural blueprints.

-

±0.000 = 357.86

[illegible]