A photograph of an open network cabinet. The cabinet is light-colored with its doors swung open to the left and right. Inside, several network devices are mounted on a black rack. At the top, there's a long horizontal device, possibly a patch panel or a switch. Below it, there are several smaller devices, including what looks like a switch with multiple ports. A dense network of multi-colored cables (yellow, red, blue, white) is plugged into the ports of these devices. The cables are bundled and organized, though some are loose and hanging. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.
